Old John Barleycorn is believed to get up and get out.

There will be no dearth of democratic candidates for United States quite generally agreed that the vote senator to succeed Senator Burton of will be close. At least a dozen gentle-

Hon. John G. Cooper of Youngstown informed the Dispatch the other day that he is strong in the running for the republican nomination for con-gress in this district. Mr. Cooper has made a fine record in the state legislature and he has a host of friends who will back him strong for a place in the national legislature

When the time comes to beat the bushes for votes, it will not be surprising if former Congressman Kennedy and D. F. Anderson meet in debate during their campaign for the re' publican nomination for congress. Let the gentlemen only announce the staging of such an attraction and the multitude will be out to enjoy the fun.

Half a million dollars for the eradication of hog cholera is provided for in a bill introduced by Senator Pomerene of Ohio, which was passed by the Senate last Thursday. The sum is to be used by the Department of Agriculture in conjunction with state agricultural colleges in experimental and demonstration work, except for $50,000, which is to be expended for inspection of serum laboratories.

At a recent meeting of Council a resolution was introduced and read for the first time to macadamize the road on the east side of Broad street. The Dispatch believes that inasmuch as one side of the street has a sub-stantial pavement and there is no urgent demand on the part of residents or great need of an improved road on the east side of the street that the money the proposed improvement would cost could be used for the good of the greatest number of people by expending it in providing street lamps, to start with, in the business quarter of the village. This is not said in the spirit of fault-finding with was named by the meeting as busi-Council for its action, for we believe it is the desire to do the best thing possible for the town. From a pure-ly selfish standpoint the Dispatch publisher should be heartily in favor of having the road on the east side of the street improved, as it would enhance the value of his property, but knowing that the people of the entire town would be benefited by having the streets lighted he prefers having that work started to being a If other citizens are of the same mind it nesday morning. would not be out of place to so ad-

Simplifying Postoffice Burglaries.

When the postmaster's safe is robbed, and the mail is scattered helter skelter about the premises, the first thing to be done is to notify the Department, which dispatches an inspector to the scene, and in the course of time the robber is likely to be caught. Sometimes this process takes a number of years.

In the mean time the postmaster and his bondsmen are debited at Washington for the few hundred, or thousands of dollars, that may have Heretofore it has taken a special act of Congress to move the burden of responsibility for the loss from the postmaster and his sureties. Finally it has come to pass in this year of 1914 that the Senate of the United States has provided a means by which the Postoffice Department may reimburse the postmasters, and should the House concur the period of worry as to what will be "done about it at Washington" will be abbreviated.

Colds, constipation and headache are three common afflictions and relieving the constipation helps the cold and stops the heatache. Use Foley Cathartic Tablets because they are very prompt and thoroughly cleansing, with absolutely no unpleasant effects. A whole bottle full for 25 cents. F. A. Morris, Canfield.—Adv.

Attorney I. B. Miller, who divides his time between the city and country, living in Boardman township where he has a fine home and broad productive acres, is giving a show in Fulton Market Oles' show window that is worth going miles to see. Barr has always been a lover of man's faithful friend, the dog, and he owns the finest female Scotch collie in the county. On New Year's day she made her owner particularly happy, although he is always in a happy frame of mind, genial and jovial, by increasing his dog family by ten. Nine of the puppies lived, and they constitute the show in Oles' window, They look as near alike as nine peas and never weary of cutting clever capers. The maw and paw of the pupples, Bart says, have pedigrees as long as the moral law, and that if they do not make prize-winners in big bench when they fully develop he
